

CLEVELAND, OHIO, CAPITAL CITY OF BASEBALL WORLD

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
CLEVELAND, Oct. 13.—With the fifth city of the United States in the matter of population definitely assured of being the first city of the baseball universe for at least twelve months, Cleveland today settled back to enjoyment of the world's championship baseball honors brought here by Jim Dunn's Indians when they defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers 3 to 2 yesterday and captured the annual classic of the professional diamond by five games to two.

Cleveland, 42 years a hanger-on in professional baseball, but now the official home of the world series winners, turned its thoughts today to devising new ways of showing appreciation of the prowess of her athletes.

Although several watches, medals, automobiles, having cup and half a dozen other trophies of unusual size have been presented to the winning players by appreciative fans, Cleveland believes it has done little for the American leaguers.

The first of a series of celebrations will be held tonight and, according to plans, the witness of Cleveland throughout the past four days over its club will be taken and dignified compared with the joy to be displayed.

Mayor Fitzgerald has issued a proclamation calling on all good citizens within walking or riding distance of this metropolis to be present tonight at Wade park and pay official homage and tribute to Tris Speaker and his tribe. High officials of the city will be present to explain to the Indians in detail just how proud Cleveland is of them.

An unofficial dinner for the players, with the city officials as hosts and everyone in the blue book as guests, is another affair which probably will take place in a day or two. Then there is the matter of presents for all the players and possibly a parade.

When the players go home they probably will be honored further, for Sandusky, Ohio, already is arranging a big home-coming for Elmer Smith.

From the time little Joe Sewell made his wonderful stop of Knott's grandstand, ending the series, and Tris Speaker climbed into the stands to kiss his gray-haired mother, Cleveland has been in a fever. The name of every player is on the lips of every fan, but standing out above all are Tris Speaker, Stanier Coveleskie, Elmer Smith, Bill Wambegans, George Burns, Walter Mails, Jim Bagby and Steve O'Neill, the men whose individual feats brought the championship here.

Coveleskie pitched himself into the world series hall of fame by defeating the Dodgers three times, and also secured some of the greatest pitching feats in history. Only one man—Christy Mathewson—has surpassed the Cleveland's work in the biggest games in baseball. Mathewson pitched three shut-out victories back in 1905. Coveleskie pitched three games, allowed two runs, fifteen hits, walked only two men, and what is most remarkable of all, threw the sphere side-ward for an average of only 37 times each game.

Bill Dineen, Urban Faber, Jack Coombs, Babe Adams and Joe Wood are the only other hurlers to win three games in one world series.

Cleveland's superiority over the National leaguers was evident in the series, for the American league champions outplayed and out-guessed their senior circuit rivals.

Coming into the series with a pitching staff considered the best in either league and noted for its aces, Brooklyn went out with a battered group of hurlers, only two of whom, Grimes and Smith, were able to pitch winning ball.

SCALPED!

And Grimes and Smith both got their beatings.

With the bat Cleveland hung up a team average of .244 to .300 for Brooklyn. Fielding figures give Brooklyn an advantage of .976 to .925.

In strategy Brooklyn repeatedly tried to ambush the Indians but each time the tomahawk came back to the mark and added another scalp to the string collected by the tribe.

Only in one branch of inside baseball did Brooklyn show real superiority, as far as the spectator could see. That was in the almost uncanny ability of Catcher Miller to catch the Indians hit and run and base stealing signals. Five times in the four games here the Brooklyn backstop called the turn by signalling for pitchouts on the plays.

The pitching superiority of Cleveland's star flinger is indicated in the scores of the games. Backing up Coveleskie's almost unparalleled work, the world's series, despite the one-sidedness of the result, brought out some of the greatest baseball in history. Numerous records of minor importance were broken, but standing above all were Wambegans' unassisted triple play and Elmer Smith's home run with the bases full. Two great pitching battles were included and terrific hitting, when long hits were needed to win the game, came from Cleveland bats.

The Brooklyn club today was on its way back home where it will disband until next season. The eastern players were generous in praise of their conquerors, frankly admitting that the best team won.

President John Heydler of the National league and President R. E. Johnson of the American league today both expressed satisfaction over the series.

In letters sent today to President Dunn and Manager Speaker, Mr. Heydler declared his belief that the best team won. He referred at length to the honesty of the series and the sportsmanship in the Brooklyn club in letting Joe Sewell play and the Cleveland club permitting Sheehan to set in the lineup when Jimmy Johnston was hurt. Neither player was eligible.

EIGHTEEN MONTHS FOR HAVING FOUR "WIVES"

LONDON.—Perhaps on the theory that he had been sufficiently punished, a magistrate here rather lightly sentenced Wm. A. Kent, a laborer, to 18 months for "quadrangamy." Kent had four "wives." He had served a term some years ago for bigamy, but accumulated two more wives afterward.

TWO MAIN EVENTS TO MAKE BENEFIT FIGHT CARD REGULAR EVENT

Thirty rounds of fighting, including a double main event, will be offered boxing fans of Phoenix next Tuesday evening when the Day Nursery benefit boxing card will be staged.

The card will be opened with a four-round bout between Mike Barras and Young Tapp, two aspiring pugilists of the city. Both youngsters are ambitious and full of fight. Their desire to mix will give the fans some regular stuff.

The second number will be a scheduled six-round bout between Young Maza and Pancho Mendoza. Maza has fought his way into the local limelight by taking on all who care to try his brand of fight. Mendoza has been putting them to sleep quite regularly lately, but he has never tackled a kid of Maza's caliber. The boys will be in tip-top shape for the battle with very good chances that one of them will go to sleep long before the last session.

The first main event will be a ten-round affair between Billy Alger, the Safford Flash, and Battling Jack Daly of Phoenix. Daly stopped Walter Sinclair a few weeks ago in one of the best fights seen here in many days. Alger lost a decision to Battling Scotty a few weeks ago, but the fans were not satisfied with the decision and protested that Alger was entitled to at least a draw.

The second main event brings together Battling Scotty, the Phoenix star horse and Jimmy Gardner, a new face in local pugilistic circles. These boys will travel ten rounds, provided a kayo is not delivered before the final session.

The receipts of the boxing carnival, outside of the expense of staging the fights, will be given to the Phoenix Day Nursery building fund.

The Day Nursery is a place where working women may leave their babes and small children in the care of expert hands while the parents work during the day. The benefit boxing carnival is a worthy undertaking and Tally's Arena will undoubtedly be crowded with fans Tuesday evening when the first bout is called.

Tickets for the fight card will be placed on sale at Eddie Doyle's cigar stand this afternoon, the same popular prices prevailing.

NEW PHOENIX BASE BALL CLUB TO OPEN SEASON OCTOBER 24

The newly organized Phoenix baseball club will play its first game Sunday, Oct. 24, according to an announcement by Manager Perry. Efforts are now being made to engage the strong Ray team, claimant of state honors, in the opening tilt.

Manager Perry has collected the "cream" of local players for his representative city club. Duke Cross and Jerry Perry will be the moundmen, giving the club a seasoned right-hander and a southpaw with a good reputation. Ross Lyall will do the backstopping.

Harry Westfall will hold down the initial sack with Scotty at the key-stone station. Scotty will be in short-field, with Bates on third, Finley Westfall, Teaney and Benvenuto who hold down the garden jobs.

A challenge has already been forwarded to Ray for a game here Oct. 24, inasmuch as arrangements could not be made for a game during fair week. In the event that Ray is unable to come on that date, efforts will be made to schedule a game with either Tempe or Mesa.

Manager Perry has called a meeting of the players for tonight, to be held at the Southwest Realty office on N. Second avenue at 8 o'clock.

A singular omission in the matter of legal formalities is the failure of the laws of the United States to provide for notifying a president-elect of his election.

In the opinion of expert authorities, Canada could increase its production of zinc to supply one-tenth of the world's demand.

J. F. CHRISTENSEN MANAGER OF HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETICS

J. F. Christensen has been appointed manager and director of high school athletics for the Phoenix district and in the future all athletic activities at the high school will be under his direct supervision. Mr. Christensen will not act in the capacity of coach, and each branch of athletics will have its own coach as at present. By having a manager of all athletics the high school faculty feels that the responsibility will not be divided among several teachers, but will be directly supervised by one man, thereby increasing the efficiency of the athletic department to the benefit of the students and the school.

Prior to accepting a position on the teaching staff of the Phoenix high school Mr. Christensen was employed at the Phoenix National bank. He is a graduate of the Park college of Kansas City, Mo., where he received his A. B. degree. He was manager of athletics at Park college last year and also acted as student business manager of the college activities.

Mr. Christensen served 19 months with the marine corps at Mare Island, where he worked from a buck private to complete charge of outside construction and local transportation. He was regarded as one of the best informed men at Mare Island, the leading marine corps post in the country. On account of his knowledge of army drill and discipline, Mr. Christensen will be a valuable aid to the high school military department. He will act as adjutant and supply officer of the high school military department. He will also have charge of the department of economics of the Junior college.

Mr. Christensen has held responsible positions with several large eastern manufacturing concerns, and he is thoroughly informed on modern business methods, as well as a recognized authority on athletics.

THIS HUNGER STRIKER WINS

SACRAMENTO.—Here's a hunger striker that succeeded. David McBee, a miner, was in jail here charged with having set a forest on fire. Foresters found McBee's 16-year-old dog at his cabin, starving to death and broken-hearted at the loss of his master. They had McBee released and the miner sent back to feed his pet. "We ain't been parted a single day in all the time we been together till now," said McBee of the dog.

BONNIE DELL WINNER OF ASHLAND STAKE

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 13.—The Ashland stake for 2:11 trotters, feature of today's Grand Circuit program, was won by Bonnie Dell, driven by his amateur owner, Thomas G. Hinds, after four stiff heats in which three different trotters had made records of 2:05 or better. The first heat went to Bonnie Dell at 2:04 1/4, the second heat went to Tootsie Toin in 2:04 1/4, and Arion McKinney beat King Watts in a tight finish in 2:05. In the fourth heat Bonnie Dell managed to outfinish Arion McKinney in 2:05 1/4.

The 2:13 pace was hardly more than a procession with Crystal Knight easily best. Best time, 2:07 1/4.

The 2:09 pace was a better race. Jay Brook took the opening heat in 2:03 1/4 from Captain Mack, but the former California pacer was best in the next two.

In place of the 2-year-old trot, which had but two to go, a 2:07 trot was given with four starters. This race went to Harvest Tide, but not until after three heats, Uhlan Brooke winning the second heat. Best time, 2:07 1/4.

TEXAS LEAGUE WANTS NEW CLASS

FORT WORTH, Tex., Oct. 13.—President Walter Morris of the Texas league announced today that he will seek higher classification for his circuit at the forthcoming meeting of the minor leagues in Kansas City. The fight will be based on the claim that the Texas clubs have one million population within or near the member cities and that the Texas league brand of ball is as fast as that of the Southern association, citing the defeat of Little Rock in the post season series by Fort Worth.
